No. 6-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the Bar to the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Name of the officer and rank

Shri Guman Singh, I.P.S., Assistant Inspector-General of Police, Anti-Dacoity Force, Jodhpur.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

Early in March 1958, information was received that the notorious dacoit Kalvaus Singh and his gang were at Pharakon-ki-Dhani in Hariadhana area, Rajasthan. On the evening of the 11th March a Police Force assembled at Pipar and early the following morning in seven separate parties surrounded the area which comprised the dhani of Pharakon, Dhinglon, Khojan, Aringon, Mundel, Bera and Gaubhirsingh in order to seal off all possible avenues of escape for the dacoits.

Shri Guman Singh with three parties under his command concentrated on the dhani of Dhinglon, Khojan and Aringon. The party of police at Pharakon under Shri Tara Chand, Superintendent of Police, Jodhpur and Shri Deendayal, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Jodhpur, had engaged the dacoits. Hearing the exchange of fire, Shri Guman Singh, with Shri Kundanlal, Additional Superintendent of Police, Jodhpur, another officer of his party, made for Pharakon. On arrival they found that the dacoits had been forced to abandon their position but had managed to evade the police cordon. Shri Guman Singh then joined Sarvashri Tara Chand and Deendayal and together they pursued the dacoits in a jeep after trailing them for five miles succeeded in heading them off. The dacoits took over in Hathi-ka-Bera and from their advantageous position on the roof of a house commenced firing at the police officers who left the jeep and at great risk worked their way close to the house in an attempt to prevent the dacoits again breaking out. The leader Kalyansingh and two other dacoits however slipped out under covering fire from their comrades and by mingling with local harvesters succeeded in reaching the dhani of Jatiyon a mile further on. There they climbed on to the roof of the highest house. Meanwhile Shri Kundan Lal had brought his police party up on the opposite side of Bera and engaged the remaining dacoits, thus permitting Shri Guman Singh and Sarvashri Tara Chand and Deendayal to follow Kalyansingh to Jatiyon in the jeep. This they were forced to abandon by fire from the dacoits and although in an exposed position they continued to exchange fire with the dacoits for nearly two hours. In the course of this engagement Shri Tara Chand was shot dead and Shri Deendayal badly wounded in the wrist. Shri Guman Singh and Shri Deendayal withdrew taking the body of Shri Tara Chand with them and having arranged for Shri Deendayal's return to Jodhpur with the body of Shri Tara Chand, Shri Guman Singh set about deploying the police parties around Jatiyon to which place the three dacoits left at Bera had escaped and joined their leader. In spite of the constant danger of being shot, Shri Guman Singh moved from one section of police to another exhorting the men, and with Shri Kundan Lal led repeated attacks on Jatiyon until by having the dhani set alight and by hand grenade and rifle fire the dacoits were driven from their strongly held position into the open. The police pressed home the attack and in the result Kalyan Singh and five other members of his gang were shot dead and seven .303 rifles, 3 revolvers, a sten gun and a large quantity of ammunition, binoculars and other articles were recovered. Throughout this engagement which lasted nearly twelve hours, Shri Guman Singh showed courage and leadership of the highest order.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4 (i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal.

No. 7-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award to the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Name of the officer and rank

Shri Tara Chand, I.P.S., Superintendent of Police, Jodhpur (Deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

Early in March 1958, information was received that the notorious dacoit Kalyansingh and his gang were at Pharakon-ki-Dhani in Hariadhana area, Rajasthan. On the evening of the 11th March a Police Force assembled at Pipar and early the following morning in seven separate parties surrounded the area which comprised the *dhani*s of Pharakon, Dhinglon, Khojan, Aringonk, Mundel, Bera and Gambhirsingh in order to seal off all possible avenues of escape for the dacoits.

Shri Tara Chand, with Deputy Superintendent of Police Shri Deendayal, was in command of the party detailed to surround Pharakon-ki-dhani. As the Police party approached Pharakon they were fired on by the dacoits, some of whom had positioned themselves behind the boundary wall and some on the roof of a house. Three members of the police party who had made their way to the south-eastern side of the boundary wall were in imminent danger of being shot. Seeing their predicament, Shri Tara Chand and Shri Deendayal although exposed to considerable danger, opened fire on the dacoits from a nearby nullah compelling them to leave their position, and by this prompt and courageous action saved the lives of the police officers. The dacoits got through the police cordon and made off but were pursued in a jeep by Shri Tara Chand, Shri Deendayal and Shri Guman Singh, Assistant Inspector-General of Police, who had joined them. The three officers trailed the dacoits for five miles and succeeded in heading them off. In the course of this engagement Shri Tara Chand was shot dead.

Shri Tara Chand took a prominent part throughout this engagement and by his conspicuous gallantry and supreme sacrifice was responsible in no small measure for the success of the operation against this desperate gang of dacoits, six of whom were shot dead and a quantity of arms and ammunition recovered.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4 (i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal.

Superintendent of Police came up on the opposite side of Hathi-ka-Bera and engaged the remaining dacoits, thus permitting the three officers to follow Kalyansingh to Jatiyon in the jeep. Here they were forced to leave the jeep by fire from the dacoits who had climbed on to the roof of the highest house and although in an exposed position they continued to exchange fire with the dacoits for nearly two hours. It was only when Shri Deendayal had been badly wounded in the wrist and Shri Tara Chand shot dead that the engagement was broken off and Shri Deendayal assisted Shri Guman Singh in withdrawing with the body of Shri Tara Chand.

Throughout this encounter Shri Deendayal showed courage and devotion to duty of the highest order, and was to a large degree instrumental in bringing this desperate gang to book. Six of the dacoits were shot dead and a quantity of arms and ammunition recovered.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4 (i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal.

No. 9-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Service Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Name of the Officer

Shri Padam Singh, Constable No. 405, Jodhpur.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

They made off and were again brought to combat in Hathi-ka-Bera from where they were once more driven out until they reached the dhani of Jatiyon. Jatiyon is situated on a small hillock with only one entrance on the northern side and its nine houses are protected by thorny barricades. The dacoits had climbed on to the roof of the highest house and from their vantage point commenced firing on the police. Constable Padam Singh was a member of the police party that engaged the dacoits at Bera and then pursued them to Jatiyon. Here he was in the forefront of the police attacks on the dhani. By 5-30 p.m. when it became evident that darkness would soon provide the dacoits with a means of escape, Constable Padam Singh and another Constable set the thorny barricades on fire at two different points with a view to driving the dacoits out. In order to accomplish this Constable Padam Singh had to approach very close to the dhani and was in constant danger of being shot. The police then pressed home their attack and drove the dacoits out of Jatiyon into the open where Kalyansingh and five of his gang were shot dead. A quantity of arms and ammunition was recovered from them.

Throughout this long encounter with a desperate and well armed gang, Constable Padam Singh displayed conspicuous gallantry of the highest order.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 10-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Name of the officer and rank

Shri Khuman Singh, Constable No. 405, R.A.C. II Bn., Jaipur (Deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

Early in March 1958, information was received that the notorious dacoit Kalyansingh and his gang were at Pharakon-ki-Dhani in Hariadhaba area, Rajasthan. On the evening of the 11th March a Police Force assembled at Pipar and early the following morning in seven separate parties surrounded the area which comprised the *dhani*s of Pharakon, Dhinglon, Khojan, Aringon, Mundel, Bera and Gambhirsingh in order to seal off all possible avenues of escape for the dacoits.

The Police party which surrounded Pharakon was the first to engage the dacoits and by continuous fire compelled them to leave their strong position. They made off and were again brought to combat in Hathi-ka-Bera, which is the place of a well with a masonry house and a disused reservoir nearby, and is screened by trees and shrubs. There was a standing crop of wheat around the well and harvesters and grazing cattle in the vicinity. One of the dacoits took cover in the reservoir and the rest on the roof of the house. As the police advanced they were fired on by the dacoits. Constable Khuman Singh, who was on the eastern flank of the well, however continued to approach the well in full view of the dacoits and fired on them from close range. His audacious action pinned the dacoits down and permitted the rest of the police to come nearer. The dacoit leader Kalyansingh and two of his associates then finding their position untenable mingled with the harvesters and so managed to slip through the police cordon, but another dacoit who attempted to escape was shot dead. Constable Khuman Singh himself fell a victim to the dacoits bullets and died. He showed outstanding courage and devotion to duty throughout this encounter.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.

No. 11-Pres./59.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Meanwhile Shri Kundan Lal followed with his police party consisting of a handful of men and made contact with the dacoits at Hathi-ka-Bera where half the gang were entrenched. Hathi-ka-Bera is screened by trees, and was, at the time, surrounded by a crop of wheat. In spite of the obvious dangers Shri Kundan Lal boldly took his men in as close as possible and by continuous fire pinned the dacoits down, giving time to the other parties of police to come up. When the dacoits found their position was worsening they made a bid to break out. One of them was shot dead but three managed by mingling with local harvesters to get through to Jatiyon and join their leader. Shri Kundan Lal followed them and joined forces with Shri Guman Singh. He led several attacks on Jatiyon until finally the dacoits were driven from their strong position out into the open and the leader Kalyansingh and five other members of his gang shot dead. A large quantity of arms and ammunition was recovered by the police.

Throughout this encounter Shri Kundan Lal displayed leadership and courage of a high order.

This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the award of the Police Medal.

This action had started at about 2.00 p.m. By 5.30 p.m. when the use of hand grenades, L.M.G., Bren-gun and rifle fire had failed to dislodge the dacoits from their secure position the thorny barricades were set alight by two constables. At this juncture Constable Raipal Singh bravely went forward and by taking his stance in the only entrance to the dhani prevented the dacoits from escaping that way. With the dhani alight and under pressure of further heavy fire from the police the dacoits at last gave way and ran out of the dhani. They were pursued and the leader Kalyansingh and five other dacoits were shot dead. A quantity of arms and ammunition was recovered from them. Constable Raipal Singh showed great courage and devotion to duty of a high order in this encounter.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
